A Neighborhood Like Neighborhoods Used To Be

Come Sit on the Patio!

“Patos are made for sippin’, grillin’ and chillin’.” That’s life on all the patios across All Saints Neighborhood, but even more this year for the assisted living residence thanks to an amazing gift from the daughter of a previous resident. To honor her mother, she gave a sizable donation to expand the patio outside the activity room and add a water feature and second pergola. Now there’s more room for folks to sip, grill and chill, as well as exercise and enjoy other activities in the fresh air. During these last precious days of summer, pay us a visit and come and sit a spell on one of our lovely patios!

Time on the Water

Both the memory care and apartment folks got out on our Madison lakes the past few months. What fun to see the city sights from this different perspective!

Down on the Farm

In June, staff of the memory care residence put on a wonderful family party that included a visit from the animals at Havens Petting Farm in Blue Mounds. They were sure a hit! Thanks to everyone who made it such a special day!

Olympic Games

Apartment tenants have been participating in their own Summer Olympics during the past couple of weeks. Games like "Basket" Ball, Table Tennis Toppling, Ladder Ball and Bags have brought out fierce competition and lots of laughs!

50th Anniversary of Ordination

Late in May, Senior Apartments tenant Monsignor Daniel Ganshert celebrated Mass in the Main Street Chapel, and afterward a reception was held to celebrate his 50th Anniversary of Ordination. We thank Monsignor Ganshert for his continued service to the Lord and to all of us at All Saints Neighborhood.

Fun and Delicious Summer Trips

There are lots of great restaurants and interesting destinations not too far from All Saints, so the Neighborhood bus is always on the move! Recently the apartment tenants went to New Life Lavender and Cherry Farm and the International Crane Foundation, both in Baraboo, and they saw "Nunsense" at the Fireside Theatre in Fort Atkinson. The assisted living folks took a tram ride around Olbrich Gardens and lunched at Anchor Inn in Edgerton, and memory care folks had a yummy breakfast at C's Restaurant and Bakery. Folks from across the campus also attended one of the summer performances of the Capitol City Band at Rennebohm Park.

Celebrating Fathers

Men across the Neighborhood celebrated Father's Day with delicious meals, and some tried their hand at Senior NASCAR Racing. Thanks to all the staff who made the day extra special to honor these marvelous gentlemen.
